

Current Issues in Cross-Border Disputes

Wednesday 16 November 2005

You are cordially invited to attend a seminar on Current Issues in Cross-Border Disputes co-hosted by Coughlin Duffy and Phillips Fox.

The presentation will discuss current issues faced by insurers and reinsurers involved in multinational litigated and non-litigated matters:

- > Developments in class action litigation.
- > The 'Common Interest Doctrine' and its impact on producing information protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege or work-product doctrines.
- > Issues to consider in commencing international litigation and/or alternative dispute resolution.
- > The increasing use of extra-contractual claims and assertion of bad faith claims in international litigation.

Jointly presented by:

About Phillips Fox

Phillips Fox is one of the largest legal firms in Australasia. Founded in 1864, today we number some 180 partners, 1500 staff, in 10 offices across 3 countries. Our culture is one that embraces the individual. That rewards innovative thinking. Creates a total commitment to meeting client needs. And actively supports new ideas in the pursuit of excellence.

At the Australian and New Zealand Insurance Industry Awards in July 2005, the judges noted that 'Phillips Fox is a leading provider of legal services to the insurance and reinsurance industry throughout Australia. For its dedication and leadership in the insurance industry, Phillips Fox was awarded Law Firm of the Year for the second consecutive year'.
